SPEAKER PROFILE

Jason King
Engineer Research and Development Center (ERDC), Vicksburg, MS

Jason King joined the High Performance Modernization Program (HPCMP) at the Engineer Research and Development Center (ERDC) shortly after graduating with a Bachelor's degree in Computer Science from Mississippi State University in May, 2016. Mr. King began working with a team developing a state of the art intrusion detection system built around a Bro sensor network. The Cybersecurity Environment for Detection, Analysis and Response (CEDAR) was designed to provide analysts with a more accurate, integrated framework of processing tools to reduce the time of cyber-incident response. More recently, Mr. King has been integral in the establishment of the HPCMP as a Cybersecurity Service Provider (CSSP) utilizing the CEDAR IDS, acting as both Detect and Respond and Cyber Threat Intelligence Team Leads. Mr. King has also been involved in a number of research endeavors as a subject matter expert for cybersecurity data sets.
